

I do not want the phone privacy act revised so banks or anyone else can call as much as want to or whenever. I am entitled to some privacy and if it interferes with bank business, that is just tough!!!